Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Saturday 02 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rain in the morning, dry and sunny in the afternoon.

Today:
A cloudy morning with showery outbreaks of rain. Becoming dry in the afternoon with increasing amounts of sunshine, the best of these in the east. Light to moderate northerly winds. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry evening and night with largely clear skies. With light north or northeast winds this will allow temperatures to fall away quickly resulting in a widespread sharp frost. Minimum temperature -5 deg C (23 deg F).

Sunday:
A cold frosty start will lead to a mostly dry cold but sunny day. However, cloud will spread west in the afternoon, perhaps a few light showers in the east. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Remaining cold. Dry for most with sunny spells, light winds and overnight frosts. A few showers possible in the east at times.
